

AN INTERIOR

New York collectible design fair Salon Art + Design returns for a robust 10th edition

Back in Action

By Adrian Madlener • Originally published as an Online Feature

New York's contribution to the seemingly endless calendar of annual collectible design fairs, Salon Art+Design has carved out a niche for itself by masterfully bringing together vintage, modern, and contemporary design under one roof. Whereas certain blue-chip platforms purely focus on the new or the old, this now well-established event makes the critical link between the past and present, helping connoisseurs, collectors, and general design enthusiasts draw important parallels, especially when it comes to making shrewd decisions on what to acquire. Held in the storied Park Avenue Armory from November 11th to the 15th, this year's Salon Art+Design promises to be as vigorous as ever, surmounting the complex challenges of the past two years.

Impact Table by Studio Greytak (Courtesy Studio Greytak)

Joining this diverse roster is a series of special projects mounted by the like of Studio Greytak, Didier LTD, and Trove. Brazilian jewelry designer Silvia Furmanovich is presenting a large scale installation in homage to the Amazon rainforest, within Park Avenue Armory's library.