

Tour The 2022 Holiday House NYC

NOVEMBER 16, 2022 BY ASPIRE DESIGN AND HOME

Holiday House NYC makes a triumphant in-person return as 18 talented designers transform two penthouse apartments on Manhattan's Upper East Side. Co-chaired by Queer Eye for the Straight Guy's Thom Filicia, Amy Lau and Jean Shafiroff, the event will raise critical funds for the Breast Cancer Research Foundation (BCRF).

"After two years without a Designer Showhouse due to the pandemic, we are so excited to be back and better than ever," writes founder and creative director Iris Dankner. "We want to extend huge thanks to our loyal supporters for sticking with us over the last couple of years and we can't wait to be reunited again this fall to enjoy the best of interior design and most importantly to work towards our mutual goal of living in a world without breast cancer."

Take a look at the beautifully designed spaces below, and see the showhouse in person now through December 11.

Sponsors for the event include Nash Stone Group, M. Daddio, Inc. Builders, Exequor Wellness, Fabricut, Phillip Jeffries, New York's Little Elves, Roche Bobois, Kirsch, Benjamin Moore, Ann Gish, Parete, Top Hat Home Services, Tito's Vodka, Royal Botania, Modernist Cuisine, FJ Hakimian, Lily Pond Services, Studio Greytak, Neil Kerman Gallery, Frette, Stark Carpet, AJ Madison and John Lyle.
